

Fairy Tale: Compare and Contrast

General Info 1. Fairy tales begin with 'once upon a time...' -usually. The story is developed about the choices a young person makes to get out of/resolve a bad predicament. Fairy tales are filled with magic and magical beings, like: giants, elves, fairies, witches...
Protagonist 2. The main character (protagonist) is a young person in the bad predicament. Minor characters in a fairy tale are royalty, those with good or evil personalities, and one with an omniscient point of view.
Setting 3. Settings in a fairy tale include the castles or palaces of royalty and the farms and the villages of peasants. Settings are developed with great detail.
Theme 4. Themes - The bad predicament is resolved. The protagonist shows forgiveness to those who opposed her/him and by doing so she/he teaches certain cultural values.
Rationale 5. Fairy tales have happy endings and teach forgiveness.	