DEFINITIONS AND SOURCES

Original sources from within and from outside the West Virginia Department of Education provided the data in this document. The majority of the data, which originated from student and personnel records maintained by county- and school-level staffs, was retrieved through the statewide electronic database, the West Virginia Education Information System (WVEIS). Users of the document are urged to contact the cited West Virginia Department of Education offices for more information about the data.

Advanced Placement in High School Courses. Percentages of tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade public school students who were enrolled in at least one advanced placement course which uses curriculum designed to prepare the student for taking College Board Advanced Placement Tests. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Advanced Placement Test. Percentages of tenth, eleventh and twelfth grade public school students who took at least one Advanced Placement Test (APT) given by the College Board. Also given is the percentage of twelfth-grade test takers who scored 3 or higher (with 5 being the highest) on any subject-area Advanced Placement Test. Source: Unpublished data tape from the College Board. Office of Technology and Information Systems.

American College Testing. Percentage of public school graduates who took the American College Testing (ACT) examination; the Composite Score is also given for schools with five or more test takers. The Composite Score is presented as "0.0" when there were less than five test takers. The ACT Composite Score for the state includes both public and non-public school students who took the ACT. Source: Unpublished data table from the American College Testing Program. Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Attendance Rate. Percentage of K-12 students who were reported as being present at school. The formula for calculating the attendance rate is: Total days present divided by the sum of total days present and total days absent. Beginning in 1996-1997, preschool students are not included in the calculation. Preschool students were included in previous years' statistics. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Average Class Size. Average number of students in a "regular education" classroom (grade levels 1-12), receiving instruction in English Language Arts, mathematics, science and social studies. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Career Cluster Information. According to West Virginia Board of Education Policy 2510, during the eighth grade year each student, in consultation with his or her parents and school counselor or advisor, selects a broad career cluster. The percentage of students is given for the career clusters. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Classrooms with Split Grades. Number of classrooms (K-6) with two or more grade levels combined for the purpose of instruction. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Dropout Rate. Percentage of students in grades 7 through 12 who left public school, for any reason except death, before graduation or without transferring to another school. Beginning in 1996-1997, the formula for calculating the dropout rate is: number of dropouts divided by the 2nd month enrollment. Previous years' rates, therefore, are not comparable. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Educational Experience for Professional Staff. Average number of years of experience for professional staff derived by dividing the sum of all years of experience by the number of professional staff. Professional staff includes positions listed under Pupil/Administrator Ratio and Pupil/Teacher Ratio as well as the following: librarian, remedial specialist, counselor (elementary, middle/junior high, high school, combined), psychologist, school nurse, attendance director, attendance officer, and social worker. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Enrollment by Subject Area in Grades 9-12. Percentage of students in grades 9 through 12, by subject area, who took at least one class in English Language Arts, Foreign Language, Mathematics, Science, Social Studies. Beginning with 1996-1997, the percentages reflect an unduplicated count of students while previous years' statistics were duplicated counts of students. For example, in 1996-1997 and thereafter, if a student took more than two English Language Arts courses, the student was counted only one time. Prior to 1996-1997, that student would have been counted twice. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

DEFINITIONS AND SOURCES

Exemptions to Pupil/Teacher Ratio. Number of public school classrooms in grades K-6 for which exemptions from the pupil/teacher ratio limitations, required by West Virginia Code §18-15-18a, were requested and granted under West Virginia Board of Education Policy 2442.3. NOTE: While this is a required indicator to be reported, it is not reported on separate pages because there have been no exemptions requested nor granted in the last five years. Source: Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Graduates. Number of students who graduated from school during the regular school year and the previous summer. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Level of Education. Percentage of professional staff by education degree. See the “Educational Experience for Professional Staff” for the definitions of professional staff. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Per Pupil Expenditures. The per pupil expenditure is based on 10th month enrollment. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of School Finance.

Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test. Percentages of sophomores and juniors in public high schools who took the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT). Source: Unpublished data report from the College Board. West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Pupil/Administrator Ratio. Average number of students for each full-time equivalent (FTE) administrator. Figures are derived by dividing public school net enrollment (2nd month) by the FTE of administrators. Administrators include superintendent, deputy/associate/assistant superintendent, administrative assistant, director/manager, director/coordinator, principal and assistant principal (elementary, middle/junior high, high, and combined), and curriculum specialist. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Pupil/Teacher Ratio. Average number of students for each FTE teacher. Figures are derived by dividing public school net enrollment (2nd month) by the FTE of teachers. Teachers include head teacher, classroom teacher (prekindergarten, kindergarten, elementary, middle/junior high, high school, special education, homebound, and vocational K-12), JROTC instructors (middle/junior high and high school), and permanent substitutes (elementary, middle/junior high school, and high school). Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Scholastic Aptitude Test. Percentage of graduates who took the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) from the College Board. Also given are SAT Math and Verbal Scores for schools with five or more test takers. The Math and Verbal Scores are presented as “000” when there were less than five test takers. The SAT Math and Verbal Scores for the state include both public and non-public students who took the SAT. Source: Unpublished data report from the College Board. West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Stanford Achievement Test. Mean percentile score for Total Basic Skills of public school students is given. (Note: Total Basic Skills include Math, Reading, and Language Arts.) The Stanford Achievement Test, 9th Edition, is administered, unless exempted by an IEP (individualized education plan), to all students in grades 1 through 11 during the month of March; results are published for grades 3 through 11. The Stanford Achievement Test, 9th Edition, was first given in March 1997. Source: Office of Student Services.

Student Enrollment. Total second month enrollment for kindergarten (including prekindergarten) through grade 12, including ungraded special education students. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.

Teachers. See Pupil/Teacher Ratio for the positions included in the number of teachers. Source: West Virginia Education Information System, Office of Technology and Information Systems.
