

WEST VIRGINIA REPORT CARDS 1997-1998

MESSAGE FROM THE COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

Harrison County Schools celebrated several major successes during 1997-98. Simpson Elementary School was selected as a West Virginia School of Excellence. Johnson and Van Horn Elementary Schools were also named by the West Virginia Department of Education as West Virginia Blue Ribbon Schools.

During 1997-98 Harrison County schools actively pursued implementation of the School-to-Work program, established benchmarks designed to raise expectations on school and student performance, and continued to address the equitable distribution of technology.

As we enter the 1998-99 school year, we will be opening a transitional program for middle school students, continuing to address the School-To-Work program, and planning teacher training in the use of technology.
