Adequate Yearly Progress Status: Needs Improvement for Standards Indicated

The West Virginia Achieves Report Card is a legislatively mandated publication of a county's progress. The sections in this Report Card are County Accountability, Statewide Testing, Teacher Information (including quality), and other county indicators. Under "Accountability" the checkmarks represent a passing status regarding Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP). The "X" represents needs improvement for standards indicated. A blank space indicates the county is not required to meet AYP because the number of students reporting is less than 50.
