Please write a short autobiography and attach it to this application. The autobiography can be as short or as long as you want it to be. Think about including some of the things that other people working for their GED diplomas would want to know, such as:

- What your life was like before you began working toward your GED
- Why you decided to work toward your GED
- Whether you studied with a special teacher and how long it took you to prepare
- How your life may have changed since obtaining your GED
- Your future plans.

The applicant hereby understands and agrees to comply with the criteria below:

1. Must be a resident of the state of West Virginia;
2. Must be an EDP graduate or GED recipient with a score of 250 prior to Jan 1, 2002 or 2500 after Jan 1, 2002;
3. Must complete twelve or more semester hours and maintain a 2.0 grade point average to be eligible for the second semester payment. The recipient must provide the West Virginia Department of Education with a copy of his or her grade transcript in order to acquire the second semester funds;
4. Must mail this completed application and autobiography to the West Virginia Department of Education, Building 6, Room 230, 1900 Kanawha Blvd., East, Charleston, WV 25305-0330 by March 1;
5. Must complete and submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to the address listed in the FAFSA packet. The FAFSA packet can be obtained from financial aid offices, the local library, or online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Failure to submit the FAFSA will void your application;
6. Must have passed the GED test or completed the EDP program by March 1.
7. The scholarship is awarded annually and you must re-apply each year to qualify. The application will be reviewed yearly by the West Virginia Department of Education. The Department is under no obligation to award former recipients a scholarship each year; however, former recipients will be given priority upon submission and re-qualification of a new application for that current school year.

The following institutions are sponsoring $1,000 scholarships ($500 per semester) or tuition waivers for the 2009-2010 academic school year. The scholarships are non-transferable since they are sponsored by the respective schools and are intended for use at that school. Please check the box of the institution to which you are applying or attending.

A letter of acceptance from the institution or a copy of your school schedule for the upcoming fall semester will be required upon awarding the scholarship in June.*
