

2015/16 West Virginia School Health Professional Development

West Virginia School Health Technical Assistance Center at MU and WVDE-Office of Student and Community Services are offering regular professional development based on needs and current practice standards inclusive of hot topics delivered through a one hour WebEx, inclusive of nursing and social work contact hours.

Cost: Marshall University will host the events utilizing WebEx and VOiP. The VOiP (voice through a computer microphone and speakers) will be utilized instead of a teleconference to maximize sustainability through minimizing cost.

When: Usually on Wednesday of every month from 2:30pm-3:30pm starting Sept. 16, 2015 –May 4, 2016.
