EVALUATION CRITERIA

English Language Arts is inclusive of dimensions which enable a learner to communicate effectively with all persons using a multitude of methods and strategies. The capable language arts learner must be no less than proficient as a communicator, critical thinker, and problem solver in the skill areas of listening, speaking, viewing, reading, grammar, spelling, writing, study skills, and technology. Proficient abilities in these skills allow the learner not merely a literal knowledge of one's language; but the ability to interpret and analyze language in order to convey and receive information. These competencies are imperative to prepare and face changing communication challenges in the 21st Century.

Each reviewer will evaluate the publisher submitted Instructional Materials and Correlations using the following rating system.

- (I) In-Depth: Instructional Materials extensively address the specific criteria.
- (A) Adequate: Instructional Materials sufficiently address the criteria.
- (M) Minimal: Instructional Materials minimally address the specific criteria.
- (N) Non-Existent: Instructional Materials do not address the specific criteria.

Instructional Materials must receive 80% I's and A's, of all specific criteria, to be recommended for placement as a primary source on the Official Multiple List.
