Instructions:

Read the following essay question carefully. Write your essay on the back of this paper.

Pretend that you are Governor Joe Manchin III. You are persuading me, a textile manufacturer from Thailand, to open my plant in West Virginia. Include these points in your presentation:

1. Tell me where I should locate my plant?
2. Tell me what resources you have to offer?
3. Tell me if I can recruit my workers from this location or if I will need to bring people in to fill the jobs I have? For example, are your citizens educated well enough to handle jobs such as:
  - a. finance (payroll, budget, etc.)
  - b. design
  - c. assembly
  - d. managers
  - e. vice-presidents
  - f. Other jobs you may want to add.
4. Tell me what I might expect to pay in taxes? Are they high or low? Can I get a tax break? If so, how long will my tax break last?
5. Tell me what the average cost of living might be?
6. Explain my choices in transportation to ship my product? Am I close to an Interstate, railroad, waterway, and/or an airport? Will it be difficult to ship my product? Will it be difficult to receive the materials I will need for my product?
7. Your goal is to convince me to build a new plant somewhere in West Virginia.

It is 1862 and President Abraham Lincoln is writing a speech to the nation about West Virginia. So far he has written:

“We can scarcely dispense with the aid of West Virginia in this struggle; much less can we afford to have her against us, in Congress and in the field.”

Use the information that you know about the importance of West Virginia to both the Union and Confederate states to help President Lincoln explain the meaning of what he has written so far. Write the remaining speech to help him persuade the people that he is right. Try to provide four arguments of persuasion.

Remember to write your essay on the lines provided on the back of this page.
