Due Process Hearings for Special Education

February 2013

West Virginia Department of Education
Office of Special Programs

Foreword

Laws and regulations help safeguard the partnership of parents of students with exceptionalities and educators in the special education process. Throughout identification, evaluation and placement, Parents participate by making referrals, providing input and consent for evaluation and initial placement and serving as important members of the Eligibility Committee (EC) and the Individualized Education Program (IEP) Team meeting. When parents and educators disagree, a due process complaint may be filed to resolve disputes between the parents and school district. The hearing officer renders a decision which determines whether the law has been violated and what remedies are available.

James B. Phares, Ed.D.
State Superintendent of Schools

Introduction

Special education laws and regulations ensure that all students with exceptionalities have available a Free Appropriate Public Education (FAPE). The West Virginia Department of Education (WVDE), Office of Special Programs (OSP), is required to receive due process complaints regarding the identification, evaluation, educational placement and/or provision of FAPE for exceptional students. Due process complaints and hearings are important procedural safeguards for parents and are required by federal law. This brochure describes the special education due process procedures available to parents and students with exceptionalities. The WVDE has a toll-free number to discuss the choices available in resolving concerns.

Who may file a due process complaint?

A parent, an adult student with an exceptionality, a school district or an attorney representing a party may request a due process complaint regarding the school district's proposal or refusal to initiate or change the identification, evaluation, educational placement and/or the provision of FAPE to the student.

How do I file a due process complaint?

A due process complaint is filed by contacting the district superintendent or the WVDE. A due process complaint must be initiated within two years of the date the parent or district knew or should have known of the disputed decision or alleged action that forms the basis for the complaint.

The request for a due process complaint must be in writing with the original signature of the parent/adult student, his or her attorney or the school district representative.

The request must be sent to the other party named in the due process complaint and the WVDE.

The request for a due process complaint must include all of the following information:

- the name of the student;
- the address of the student's residence;
- the name of the school the student is attending;
- available contact information in the case of a homeless student;
- a description of the nature of the student's problem, including facts relating to the proposed or refused initiation or change; and
- a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the parent or the school district at the time.

How is a due process complaint assigned and scheduled?

Upon receipt of a due process complaint, the WVDE, OSP, will complete the following activities:

- select the hearing officer on a rotating basis, and
- notify the hearing officer of the assignment.

After assignment the hearing officer will complete the following activities:

- schedule the hearing with both parties, and
- make final decisions regarding the location and scheduling of the hearing, including extensions and any other procedures within the authority of the due process hearing officer.

What is the timeline for a due process complaint?

When a parent, an adult student with an exceptionality, or his or her attorney files a due process complaint, a resolution meeting shall be held within 15 calendar days. A due process hearing will be scheduled if no resolution is reached. Hearing timelines commence at this point.

A resolution meeting need not be held if both parties agree in writing to waive the resolution meeting or both parties agree to participate in mediation. If the school district files the complaint, a resolution meeting is not required.
