A TIME FOR REMEMBRANCE AND REFLECTION:
9/11 AND BEYOND

JUNE 26-27, 2011
WVU Erickson Alumni Center
Morgantown, West Virginia

This colloquium will reflect on the upcoming 10-year anniversary of the September 11 attacks on the World Trade Center Towers and the Pentagon, and the crash of Flight 93 in Somerset, Pennsylvania.

This event provides an opportunity to engage in meaningful conversations with the goal of providing a framework for understanding the history and impact of these attacks on the nation.

FEATUREING NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED SPEAKERS

Dr. Diana Hess, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Expert on addressing controversial issues in the classroom

Professors Jack Zevin & Michael Krasner
Queens College of the City University of New York
Co-Directors, Taft Institute for Government
Developed a curriculum for high school students that aids teachers in presenting the events of September 11 to the classroom

CONTACT
Dr. Robert A. Waterson
Director
Center for Democracy & Citizenship Education
304-293-3849
robert.waterson@mail.wvu.edu

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Three hours of professional development are offered with the tuition waived by the Department of Curriculum and Instruction/Literacy Studies at the WVU College of Human Resources and Education. Continuing education units are also available.

For more information – including registration, payment and hotel accommodations – go to the CDCE website: http://cdce.wvu.edu

PRIORITY REGISTRATION DEADLINE: JUNE 10