

DATE: October 2016

TO: WV Young Writers County Coordinators

FROM: Dr. Barbara O'Byrne-Director, Central West Virginia Writing Project

SUBJECT: 2017 WV Young Writers Contest (YWC)

For over 30 years, the West Virginia Young Writers Contest has celebrated the best student writing in the state. The YWC grows out of a deep commitment to writing throughout the school year in all subjects, and to the publishing, displaying, and celebrating of student writing.

Students qualify for the state competition by winning their county's YWC in one of six grade categories: 1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8, 9-10, and 11-12. Coordinators will submit winning entries, and related Cover Sheet information electronically to the CWVWP/ Marshall University Blackboard Learning System. In addition, coordinators will submit completed Cover Sheets and Permission Release Forms by mail to the address indicated on these documents by February 27, 2017. To meet this deadline, schools must submit all entries to the County Coordinator by February 6, 2017. Teachers may begin collecting student writing for the contest immediately.

Blackboard user names and unique county passwords will be sent to County Coordinators by December 2016. Forms and contest guidelines for YWC accompany this memo and are available at:

Central West Virginia Writing Project/Young Writers Contest, <http://www.marshall.edu/cwvwp>
WV Department of Education, http://wvde.state.wv.us/instruction/young_writers.html

First place county winners will be invited to participate in the WV Young Writers Day at the University of Charleston on Friday, May 12, 2017. Should the county 1st place winner be unavailable to attend, no substitutions will be permitted.

Your willingness to organize the contest in your county allows West Virginia student writing to be honored and celebrated. When you distribute information in the county, please provide teachers and principals with YWC County Coordinator identification and contact information.

Thank you for your participation.
